

“Having tried several organizations I settled on Span Global Services because I was able to be more specific with the ideal buyer that I wanted to target with my campaigns. To get specific EMEA contacts can be sometimes challenging if you want to get targeted data for multiple countries across the EMEA region, but with you I didn't need to worry about any of it.”

FROM ONE YACHT PARTY

Abstract

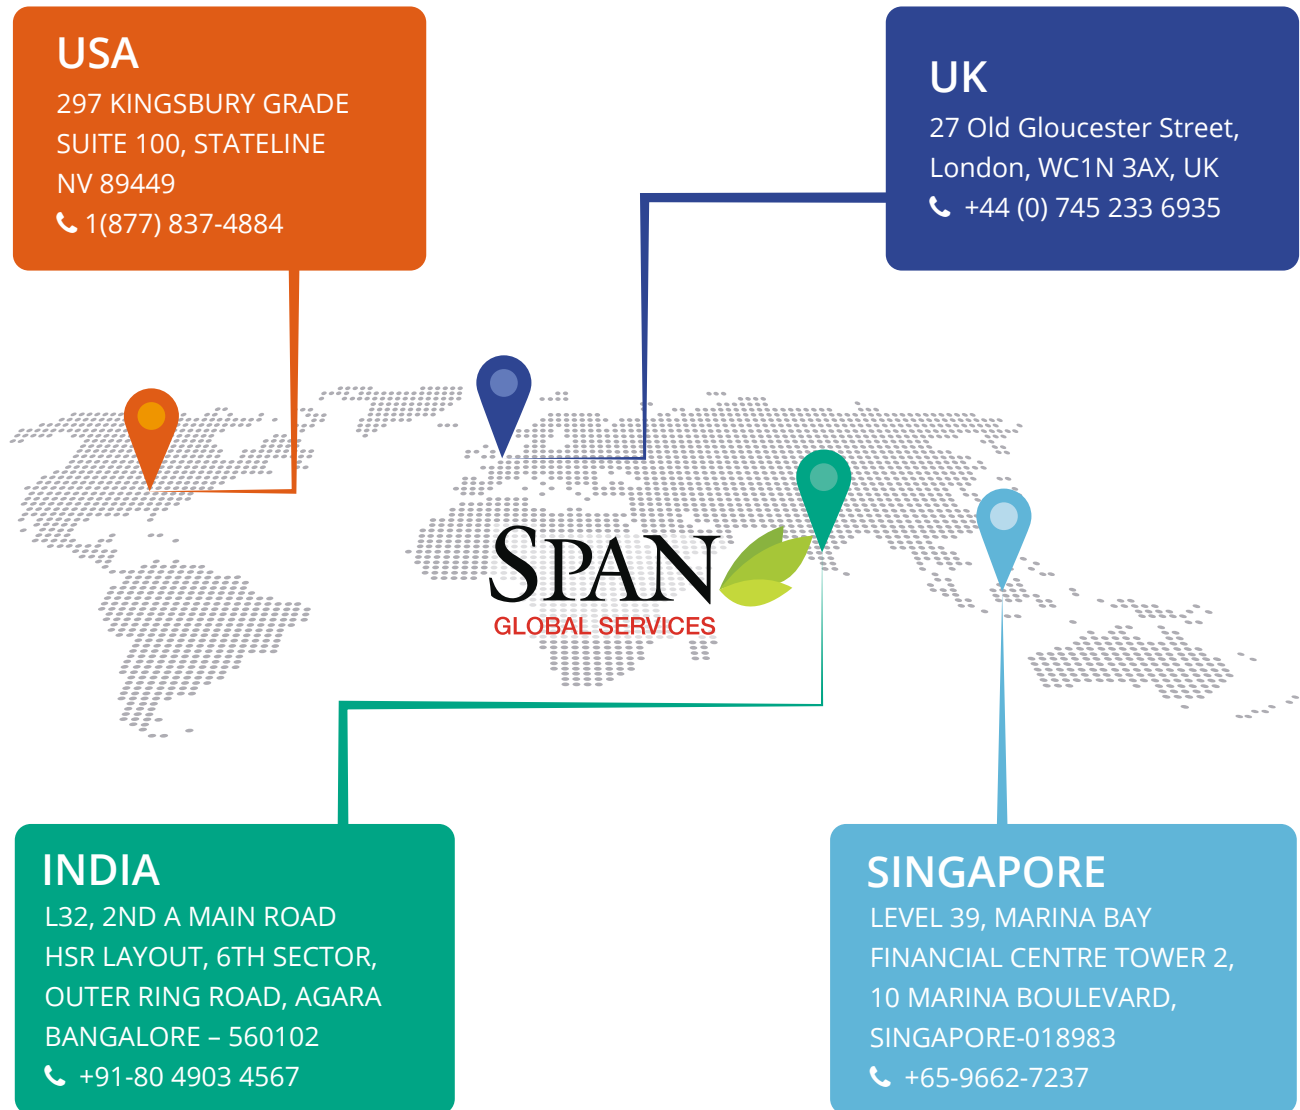

Our client (from Dubai's hospitality industry) was organizing their annual yacht party. They were planning to invite the elite of Dubai to make the occasion coincide with the unveiling of the new addition of their marine fleet. The event became a grand success and later on it became the foundation to putting our client's name in the marine luxury tourism map in UAE. Below is a brief account of how our chosen focus groups made it happen.

Client

Headquartered in Switzerland, our client operates a renowned and successful hotel-chain in the Middle East. Apart from multiple hotels, outlets and luxury tourism packages, our client is also involved in numerous adventure sports activities in the region. With this venture, they wanted to appear in Dubai's marine tourism map.
